The Books of Night and Day Learning from Bishop Synesius of Cyrene How to Practice Dreamwork as Real Church
Robert Moss

We have direct access to sacred knowledge, in our dreams. Our dreams are a personal oracle that reveals the future and helps us prepare for it. We must not let anyone tell us what our dreams mean or stand between us and the direct experience of the sacred that is available in dreaming. We want to pay attention to signs from the world around us in the knowledge that everything in the universe is interconnected and constantly interweaving. We need to journal both our dreams and our waking experiences in our Books of Night and Day.

These insights come from a fifth century bishop of the church, Synesius of Cyrene, whose treatise On Dream is one of the wisest books ever written on how to work with dreams and synchronicity....

Tapping the Power of Dreams, Coincidence and Imagination

In this fun, high-energy program we'll learn techniques for empowering and healing our lives, every day, through dreams, coincidence and imagination.

Carl Jung and Christianity

The Rev. John L. Martin, D. Min.

John will lead us in an exploration of the role of symbol in Carl Jung's understanding of religious faith, thereby providing us a lens through which we will be enabled to view a post-modern alternative to the traditional approaches one finds in the Christian churches of today.

Dr. Martin is a retired Presbyterian (USA) minister. He is a former board chair and one among the favorite presenters and teachers at the former "Journey into Wholeness." Along with his wife, Carolyn, he teaches the very popular Journey Conferences Pre-conference event: the "Language of the Soul" seminar, which they have been teaching and refining for more than twenty years.
